KOPRODUKCIJE FILMSKIH IN AVDIOVIZUALNIH
DEL MED AVSTRIJO IN SLOVENIJO: STROKOVNO
SREČANJE / FILM AND AUDIOVISUAL CO-PRODUCTIONS BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND SLOVENIA: INDUSTRY MEETING

Slovenski filmski center v sodelovanju z Avstrijskim filmskim inštitutom pripravlja drugo zaporedno strokovno koprodukcijsko srečanje slovenskih in avstrijskih filmskih institucij, ustvarjalcev in producentov. Za uvod v srečanje bodo predstavljene možnosti financiranja v Avstriji in Sloveniji.

Prvo tovrstno srečanje je potekalo na festivalu Diagonale aprila letos v Gradcu. Dogodek bo namenjen iskanju nadaljnjih možnosti za okrepljeno sodelovanje med slovenskimi in avstrijskimi producenti ter filmskimi ustvarjalci in izhaja iz 20. člena Sporazuma med Vlado Republike Slovenije in Vlado Republike Avstrije o sodelovanju v kulturi, izobraževanju in znanosti. Slovenijo in Avstrijo, državi z bogato kulturno dediščino, povezuje tudi strast do filmske umetnosti. Film je univerzalen jezik umetnosti, ki presega meje, in obe državi sta se s podpisanim sporazumom zavzeli za razvoj koprodukcijskega filmskega ustvarjanja. Skladno s sporazumom si strani prizadevata za okrepljeno sodelovanje na področju filmske produkcije in koprodukcije. Dogodek bo pomemben korak na poti k uresničevanju teh skupnih prizadevanj in s tem ustvarjanju boljših pogojev za mednarodne filmske koprodukcije v obeh državah.

The Slovenian Film Centre, in collaboration with the Austrian Film Institute, organises the second co-production industry meeting of Slovenian and Austrian film institutions, filmmakers, and producers. The meeting will start with a presentation of funding opportunities in Austria and Slovenia.

The first meeting took place at Diagonale, Graz earlier this year. The event aims to discuss further possibilities for enhanced collaboration between Slovenian and Austrian producers and filmmakers, based on Article 20 of the Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Slovenia and the Government of the Republic of Austria on collaboration in culture, education, and science. Slovenia and Austria are countries with rich cultural heritage that share a passion for cinema. Cinema is a universal language of art that transcends borders, and by signing the agreement, the two countries have committed to advance co-produced filmmaking. In line with the agreement, the two sides are working towards enhanced cooperation in the field of film production and co-production. The event is an important step towards realising these joint efforts and creating better conditions for international film co-productions in both countries.

JUBILEJ REVIJE DNEVI SLOVENSKEGA FILMA:
PREDSTAVITEV ZBORNICA OB DESETI OBLETNICI
OBSTOJA / DAYS OF SLOVENIAN CINEMA
ANNIVERSARY: PRESENTATION OF THE BOOK
COMMEMORATING 10 YEARS OF THE FESTIVAL

Društvo Slovencev v Beogradu, t. i. Društvo Sava, je začelo delovati na prelomu tisočletja s poslanstvom združevanja slovenskih intelektualcev v srbskem kulturnem prostoru ter ohranjanja slovenskega jezika. Ko so se meje po vojni ponovno odprle, so tako dozoreli tudi pogoji za kulturno izmenjavo, ki je izbor sodobnih slovenskih filmov iz Portoroža vsako leto popeljala do beograjske Jugoslovanske kinoteke. Prva revija Dnevi slovenskega filma se je tako odvila novembra 2015, tej pa je v zadnjem desetletju sledila predstavitev več kot dvesto celovečernih in kratkometražnih slovenskih filmov, ki so pred beograjsko publiko doživeli topel sprejem.

Deseti jubilej obeležuje izid monografije, posvečene ključnim dogodkom, avtorjem in umetnikom, zaslužnim za razvoj in obstanek tega dogodka. Publikacijo so pripravili člani Društva Sava z uredniško in tehnično podporo revije Planeta.

⋮ Predstavitev bo deloma potekala v srbskem jeziku.

The Sava Slovenian Society in Belgrade was formed at the turn of the century to bring together Slovenian intellectuals in Serbia's cultural landscape and help preserve the Slovenian language. When after the war the borders reopened, this allowed for cultural exchange that saw a selection of contemporary Slovenian films travel each year from Portorož to the Yugoslav Cinematheque in Belgrade. The first edition of Days of Slovenian Cinema was held in November 2015. In the following decade, more than 200 Slovenian features and shorts were screened to a warm reception from the audience in Belgrade.

To mark the 10th edition, a book was released, celebrating the key events, filmmakers and artists credited with developing the festival and keeping it alive. The publication was produced by members of the Sava Society with editorial and technical support from Planeta Magazine.

⋮ The presentation will be partly in Serbian.

18.00 AVDITORIJ PORTOROŽ

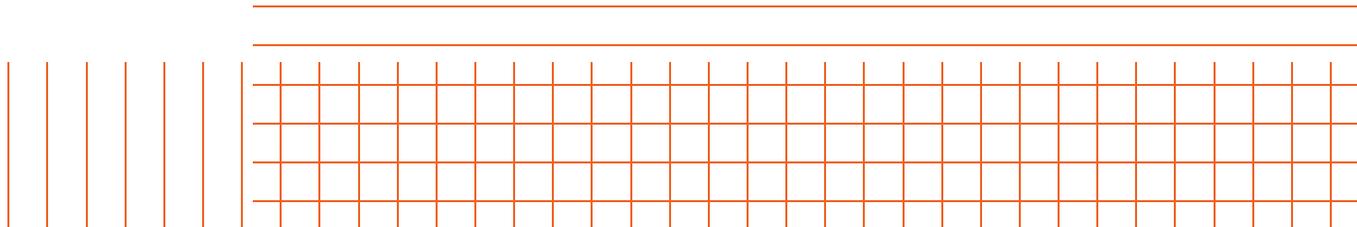

OTVORITEV RAZSTAVE FOTOGRAFIJ IRENE HERAK / OPENING OF PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION BY IRENA HERAK

Fotografije Irene Herak so na Dnevih slovenskega filma, s katerimi sodeluje že od samih začetkov, pustile pomemben umetniški pečat. Njena estetika je ekspresionistična, ko s portreti beleži in vizualno interpretira utrinke iz sveta filma, mnoge osebnosti in srečanja pa so tako prav zahvaljujoč njenemu objektivu postali zgodovinski: kot je trenutek, v katerem se po več desetletjih ponovno srečata igralca Klopčičeve Sedmine, Snežana Nikšić in Rade Šerbedžija.

Portreti, premierno razstavljeni v Beogradu na jubilejnih 10. Dnevih slovenskega filma, svojo pot tokrat prvič nadaljujejo onkraj srbske meje, na Festivalu slovenskega filma Portorož.

Irena Herak's photographs have left their mark on the Days of Slovenian Cinema with expressionist aesthetics, her portraits documenting and visually interpreting moments from the world of cinema since the festival's very beginnings. It was thanks to Herak's camera that many personalities and encounters have gone down in history, such as the first reunion of actors from Klopčič's Funeral Feast, Snežana Nikšić and Rade Šerbedžija, in decades.

First exhibited in Belgrade during the 10th anniversary edition of Days of Slovenian Cinema, the portraits will be on display at the Festival of Slovenian Film Portorož in their first ever show outside Serbia.

PREDAVANJE IN OKROGLA MIZA: OSNOVE AVTORSKEGA PRAVA – PRAVICE SOAVTORJEV AV DEL / LECTURE AND PANEL DISCUSSION: THE ABCs OF COPYRIGHT LAW – THE RIGHTS OF AV WORK CO-AUTHORS

Uvodoma bodo na kratko predstavljene osnove avtorskega prava (vrste, vsebina in predmet avtorske ter sorodnih pravic, njihov gospodarski pomen, omejitve pravic, pomen denarnih nadomestil, pravni viri); pravni status soavtorjev AV del ter splošna pravila filmskega pogodbenega prava. Temu bo sledila razlaga novih izhodišč (varovalk) za bolj pravične filmske pogodbe soavtorjev AV del (primerna, sorazmerna in neprenosljiva nadomestila, obvezno kolektivno upravljanje, načelo transparentnosti, klavzula 'best-seller', dobre prakse s kolektivnimi oz. cehovskimi sporazumi itd.).

Uvodno predavanje na okrogli mizi bo imel dr. Miha Trampuž, AAS Avtorska agencija za Slovenijo, pravni svetovalec za avtorsko pravo.

The event will start by briefly outlining the basics of copyright law (types, content and subject of copyright and related rights, their economic meaning, limitations of rights, the meaning of monetary compensation, legal sources); the legal status of co-authors of AV works; and the general rules of contract law in the film industry. This will be followed by an explanation of the new starting points (safeguards) for fairer film contracts for co-authors of AV works (adequate, proportionate and non-transferable remuneration, compulsory collective management, transparency principle, best-seller clause, good practices with collective or guild agreements, etc.).

The introductory lecture will be delivered by Dr Miha Trampuž of the Copyright Agency of Slovenia (AAS), a legal adviser on copyright law.

PROJEKCIJA OB 100-LETNICI ROJSTVA IGORJA PRETNARJA: EISENSTEINOV UČENEC: REŽISER IGOR PRETNAR V MOSKVI (SLAVKO HREN, 2012) / CELEBRATING THE CENTENARY OF IGOR PRETNAR'S BIRTH: EISENSTEIN'S STUDENT: DIRECTOR IGOR PRETNAR IN MOSCOW (SLAVKO HREN, 2012)

Od slovenskih režiserjev, ki so se uveljavili po drugi svetovni vojni, je bil Igor Pretnar edini, ki se je ob študiju na ljubljanski Akademiji za igralsko umetnost izobraževal tudi v Moskvi na Vsesovjetski šoli za kinematografijo pri Sergeju Eisensteinu. Dokumentarni film Eisensteinov učenec tako preko biografskih podatkov, zapisanih spominov in osebnih pričevanj sodobnikov išče resnice o neraziskanih poglavjih slovenskega filma takoj po 2. svetovni vojni, ko so se snovalci 'nove kulturne politike' odločili, da se bomo filmske obrti učili pri filmarjih vzhodne Evrope, predvsem Sovjetske zveze. Igorju Pretnarju, ki se je kasneje s filmi, kakršna sta Samorastniki in Idealist, podpisal pod temeljna dela slovenske filmske klasike, je bilo takrat določeno potovanje v Moskvo.

Po projekciji se bo z avtorjem filma pogovarjala Nerina Kocjančič.

Of the Slovenian directors who made a name for themselves after World War II, Igor Pretnar was the only one who also trained in Moscow at the All-Russian University of Cinematography under Sergei Eisenstein, in addition to studying at the Academy of Dramatic Arts in Ljubljana. Using biographical data, written memoirs and personal testimonies of contemporaries, the documentary Eisenstein's Student seeks the truth about little-known, largely unexplored chapters of Slovenian cinema in the immediate aftermath of the World War II, when the architects of the country's 'new cultural policy' decided that future film workers would learn their craft from filmmakers from Eastern Europe, especially the Soviet Union. Igor Pretnar, who would later make some of Slovenia's most iconic classics with films such as Wild Growth (Samorastniki) and Idealist, was assigned to travel to Moscow.

After the screening, Nerina Kocjančič talks to the director Slavko Hren.

DELAVNICA ZELENO FILMSKO USTVARJANJE Z INES KEŽMAN / GREEN FILM MAKING WITH INES KEŽMAN

Zeleni prehod je temeljni izziv našega časa, zato je uresničevanje ciljev zelenega dogovora ena najpomembnejših prednostnih nalog Evropske komisije. To neposredno vpliva tudi na filmsko industrijo, ki mora prilagoditi svoje prakse za zmanjšanje okoljskega odtisa. Konkretno spremembo spodbuja tudi program EU Ustvarjalna Evropa, saj morajo prijavitelji že ob prijavi predložiti t. i. zeleno strategijo. Na seminarju boste izvedeli, kako lahko filmska industrija prispeva k zmanjšanju ogljičnega odtisa. Seminar organizira ZDSFU v sodelovanju z Motovilo.

The green transition is the key challenge of our time, which is why delivering on the Green Deal objectives is one of the European Commission's top priorities. This has a direct impact on the film industry and its need to adapt its practices to reduce its environmental footprint. The EU's Creative Europe programme encourages concrete action, requiring applicants to submit a 'Green Strategy' together with their application. The seminar looks into how the film industry can contribute to reducing its carbon footprint. Organised by The Slovenian Federation of Filmmakers' Guilds in collaboration with Motovila.

GLASBA V FILMU – OVIRA ALI PRILOŽNOST?
(MARKUS LINDE V POGOVORU Z BARBARO ZEMLJIČ) / MUSIC IN FILMS – AN OBSTACLE OR OPPORTUNITY? (MARKUS LINDE TALKING TO BARBARA ZEMLJIČ)

Mnogi učni načrti filmskih akademij premalo vključujejo glasbo, zato so študentje pri glasbenem opremljanju filmov pogosto prepuščeni sami sebi. Glasbeni supervizorji oz. opremljevalci so ključni pri usklajevanju glasbe in filma, njihovo iskanje pa je povezano s proračunom filma. Projekt Europe in Synch (EinS) povezuje filmski in glasbeni svet, organizira delavnice na evropskih konferencah ter spodbuja dialog in boljše razumevanje med obema sektorjema. Spoznajte strokovnjake EinS in izkoristite priložnost za individualni posvet o glasbi za svoj film.

Many film school curricula pay little attention to music, so students are often left to their own devices when it comes to scoring their films. Music supervision or licensing are crucial roles in synchronisation, and finding the right creatives for the job often depends on the budget. The Europe in Synch (EinS) project brings together the film and music worlds by organising workshops at European conferences and promoting dialogue and better understanding between the two sectors. Meet the EinS experts and take the opportunity for a one-to-one consultation on music for your film.

DRUŠTVO SLOVENSКИH FILMSKIH PUBLICISTOV FIPRESCI: ŽENSKÉ DELAJO FILM / FIPRESCI ASSOCIATION OF SLOVENIAN FILM CRITICS: WOMEN MAKING FILMS

Čeprav je slovenska filmska produkcija šele z letom 2002 dobila prvi ženski 'filmski podpis', se ob letošnji 30-letnici Mesta žensk končno zdi, da se filmska industrija odpira enakopravnejši zastopanosti spolov. Pa se res? O tem, s kakšnimi družbenimi in sistemskimi izzivi se danes soočajo v svojem polju dela, se bodo pogovarjale režiserka in scenaristka Sonja Prosenc, producentka Ida Weiss, montažerka Sara Gjeršek in režiserka Maja Doroteja Prelog, ki je za svoj dokumentarni prvenec prejela nagrado za promocijo enakosti spolov. Moderirala bo dr. Polona Petek.

Pogovor organizira Društvo slovenskih filmskih

publicistov FIPRESCI s finančno podporo
Slovenskega filmskega centra.

Although Slovenian cinema didn't get a feature directed by a woman until 2002, it seems that in 2024, when the City of Women festival celebrates its 30th edition, the film industry is finally ready for a more equal representation of women. Or is it? The director and screenwriter Sonja Prosenc, producer Ida Weiss, editor Sara Gjeršek, and director Maja Doroteja Prelog, who has won an award for the promotion of gender equality for her documentary debut, discuss the social and systemic challenges they face in their field of work today. Chaired by Dr Polona Petek.

Slovenian Film Critics with financial support from the Slovenian Film Centre.

LITERATURA NA FILMU: OKROGLA MIZA O LITERATURI IN FILMSKIH ADAPTACIJAH / LITERATURE ON FILM: PANEL DISCUSSION ON LITERATURE AND FILM ADAPTATIONS

Ob 90. obletnici rojstva Matjaža Klopčiča, ki se podpisuje pod filmsko adaptacijo romana Bena Zupančiča Sedmina (1969), ter 100. obletnici rojstva Igorja Pretnarja, ki je s Samorastniki (1963) in Idealistom (1976) v filmski jezik prevajal dela Prežihovega Vrance in Ivana Cankarja, bomo pretresali povezave med filmom in literaturo ter v obdobju, ko lahko z adaptacijami avtoric, kot so Suzana Tratnik, Bronja Žakelj, Dijana Matković ipd., ponovno govorimo o vzponu literature na filmu, razmišljali o tem, kaj dela literaturo filmsko, kakšne so razlike v adaptacijah klasične in sodobne literature ter zakaj je potrebno graditi mostove med literarnimi in scenarističnimi svetovi.

Pri pogovoru bodo sodelovali nekdanji urednik Cankarjeve založbe in filmski podkaster Aljoša Harlamov, pisateljica Suzana Tratnik, akademik in avtor knjige Ko beseda podoba najde dr. Matevž Rudolf ter režiser in scenarist Matevž Luzar. Pogovor bo moderirala Veronika Zakonjšek.

To mark the 90th birth anniversary of Matjaž Klopčič, who adapted his Funeral Feast (1969) from Beno Zupančič's novel Sedmina, and the centenary of birth of Igor Pretnar, who transferred works by Prežihov Voranc and Ivan Cankar to Wild Growth (1963) and Idealist (1976), we discuss connections between cinema and literature. In a time of renewed interest in literature on film with female authors, such as Suzana Tratnik, Bronja Žakelj, and Dijana Matković, we look into what makes literature cinematic, how adaptations of classics differ from those of contemporary literary works, and why it is important to build bridges between literary and screenwriting worlds.

Speakers include Aljoša Harlamov, a former editor of Cankarjeva založba publishing house, member of the Ekran Magazine editorial board and film podcaster; writer Suzana Tratnik; Dr Matevž Rudolf, a scholar and author of Ko beseda podoba najde, a book on Slovenian literature and cinema in theory and practice; and director and screenwriter Matevž Luzar. DRUŠTVO SLOVENSКИH AVDIOVIZUALNIH IGRALCEV: PREDSTAVITEV CERTIFIKATA ISKRA / THE SCREEN ACTORS GUILD OF SLOVENIA: PRESENTATION OF 'ISKRA' CERTIFICATE

Certifikat Iskra omogoča ustvarjalcem, da potrdijo svojo zavezanost ničelni toleranci do spolnega nadlegovanja in nasilja na delovnem mestu in v umetniškem procesu. Za njegovo pridobitev se morajo udeleženci seznaniti z nekaj transparentnimi koraki, ki bodo preprečili ali vsaj omejili pojavljanje spolnega nadlegovanja in nasilja. Iz rezultatov ankete, ki smo jo izvedli leta 2021, izhaja, da je le-to prisotno tudi v AV sektorju. Certifikat je namenjen tako javnim zavodom, nevladnim organizacijam, AV producentom kot tudi posameznim projektom. Z njim se zavežemo k uporabi orodij, ki opolnomočijo vse sodelujoče v umetniškem procesu. Certifikat Iskra že odmeva v uprizoritvenih umetnostih, zdaj bi ga radi predstavili in razširili tudi v AV sektorju.

Ministrstva za kulturo Republike Slovenije.

Certifikat bodo predstavile Nika Rozman, Rina Pleteršek in Barbara Skubic, članice delovne skupine Društva DSI #znamiseneha

The Iskra Certificate allows creatives to affirm their commitment to zero tolerance of sexual harassment and violence in the workplace and in the artistic process. To obtain it, candidates must be familiar with a few transparent steps that will prevent or at least limit sexual harassment and violence. The results of a survey carried out in 2021 show that both are present in the audiovisual sector. The certificate is aimed at public institutions, NGOs, AV producers as well as individual projects. It is a commitment to use tools that empower all those involved in the artistic process. The Iskra Certificate is already resonating in the performing arts, and now the aim is to introduce and extend it to the AV sector.

The Iskra Certificate was conceived by the Screen Actors Guild of Slovenia and the Slovenian Association of Dramatic Artists with the financial support of the Ministry of Culture of Slovenia.

Presentation by Nika Rozman, Rina Pleteršek, and Barbara Skubic, members of the Screen Actors' Guild #itendswithus working group.

PROJEKCIJA OB 90-LETNICI ROJSTVA MATJAŽA KLOPČIČA: SEDMINA (MATJAŽ KLOPČIČ, 1969) / CELEBRATING THE 90TH BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF MATJAŽ KLOPČIČ: FUNERAL FEAST (MATJAŽ KLOPČIČ, 1969)

Sedmina predstavlja tretji igrani celovečerec Matjaža

Klopčiča, enega estetsko najprepoznavnejših avtorjev slovenskega filma, od katerega rojstva letos mineva 90 let. Gre hkrati za njegovo prvo adaptacijo literarnega dela, in sicer istoimenskega romana pisatelja Bena Zupančiča iz leta 1957, ter njegov prvi barvni film, ki vsebuje le nekaj črno-belih prizorov. A kljub časovni umestitvi v medvojno Ljubljano, v prvo leto italijanske okupacije, ne gre za običajen film o narodnoosvobodilnem boju. V ospredje tega prelomnega časa so namreč postavljeni dijaki pred maturo, katerih odraščanje je grobo prekinjeno, ko med prvimi ljubezenskimi hrepenenji in erotičnimi izkušnjami iščejo stik z odporiškim gibanjem. Kot piše Zdenko Vrdlovec, je NOB s Sedmino postal estetska kategorija, niz asociativnih podob, ki rušijo običajno dožemanje časa, prostora in dogajanja, s tem pa spodmikajo čvrstost pričakovanim ideološkim okvirom.

⋮ Po projekciji sledi pogovor.

Funeral Feast was the third feature film directed by Matjaž Klopčič, one of the aesthetically most distinct Slovenian filmmakers, whose 90th birth anniversary we celebrate this year. This was also his first adaptation of a literary work – Beno Zupančič's 1957 novel 'Sedmina' – and his first film in colour, with few black & white scenes. Despite being set in Ljubljana during World War II, in the first year of Italy's occupation, this is no ordinary film about the national liberation struggle. Against this historic background, its focus is on students about to graduate from high school, whose coming of age is brutally interrupted as they seek contact with the resistance movement in the midst of their first amorous longings and erotic experiences. According to Zdenko Vrdlovec, Funeral Feast made the national liberation movement an aesthetic category, a set of associative images that disrupt the usual perception of time, space and events, thereby undermining the solidity of the expected ideological frameworks.
